Growing and selling this produce to guests (produce listed later in this pack) allows us to live a self-sustainable lifestyle. We believe that sustainability is key to the future, so when it came to developing the farm this was at the forefront of our minds. So far we've planted 7,500 trees here at Loveland Farm, which has created an ecosystem for animals and plants and that's just a start...

We believe in slow fashion, slow food, producing the best quality. We take recycling very seriously but feel that reducing the amount of waste we produce is the most important factor and therefore we use as little plastic as possible - favouring glass for milk and jam jars. We have also provided you with a metal recycling bin and it would be great if you could recycle glass, tin and plastic bottles as this is all our local council will take.

All the pods are installed with compost loos which save an average of 8000 litres of water per year, using less energy and helping us develop the ecosystem here at the farm. Our loos are award-winning for their comfort and smell, or lack of it!

In addition to the compost loos, we run the farm and heated swimming pool off of our solar panels and a 110KW Biomass system which uses recycled wood chips. All of this helps create a circular economy as we use waste to fuel our living, with food waste being used as compost or feed for the animals that we keep.

All of our pods and tipis feature a comfy handcrafted Devon Duvet. Each wool duvet is 100% British, carefully sourced and certified by the British Wool Marketing Board. Not only that but because Devon Duvets are made from high quality fibres that have not been bleached or chemically treated, it's great for those with allergies and asthma.

DEVON DUVETS™

LOCALLY SOURCED

We grow as much of our own food as possible here on the farm in both our poly tunnel and veg garden which supplies us with potatoes, courgette, beans and pumpkins seasonally to name just a few! The ingredients that make up our pizza menu (later on in the pack) are sourced from within the farm itself.

A complimentary sample of Sabin's coffee can be found in your kitchen, alongside the innovative Aeropress coffee maker - a sleek, ergonomic device that plunges fresh coffee in under 30 seconds. If you enjoy this unique coffee blend we can refill your tin for £6 or alternatively take a full tin home for £8.25 to enjoy at your leisure!

The wood that fuels our wood-burners to keep you toasty warm is locally sourced. Adding to this, we are proud to support local producers - especially when its delicious coffee from our friends in Bude. Sabins ethically sources beans from small farms across the globe and roasts small batches by hand to bring out the best from each bean. From crop to cup, sabins supports co-operatives internationally to ensure transparency and sustainability.

♥

The dream that is Loveland Farm was created by fashion duo Jeff and Karina Griffin, back in 2007 after a family trip to Canada experiencing the sustainability of the outdoors. This got Jeff thinking... A combination between the love for fashion and a passion for the extreme outdoors could create something really unique.

*‘THE LIFE STYLE,
THE CLOTHING;
THEY ARE ALL
INFLUENCED BY EACH OTHER’*

The husband, wife and family team set up their eponymous menswear design label back in 1994 which evokes a fusion of contemporary British design, uncompromising sustainable quality and technically led fashion outerwear for the modern urban adventurer.

After living in London and Milan for years, they moved their internationally recognised studio away from the city and out to the extreme Atlantic coastline, for inspiration and their own piece of this lifestyle. Consulting for some of the fashion industry’s biggest brands including Hugo Boss, Element, Berghaus, Kenzo, Mandarin Duck, Thrudark, Woolrich and Converse allowed the family to make this risky move.

WHAT

TO DO.

All the best activities you don't want to miss in north Devon!

Water or Cakes?

If you are an outdoor sports lover this is definitely the right place to be. The incredible coastline and the ocean waves makes North Devon an outdoor mecca.

WHAT IF IT'S RAINING

If you really fancy a climb but the weather isn't on your side then why not head over to one of the climbing walls in the area. Check them out on their websites, Rocks & Rapids (www.rockandrapidadventures.co.uk) and The Barn (www.barnclimbingwall.co.uk)

CLIMBING

Don't miss the opportunity to visit the Blackchurch rock and climb one of the classic routes like Sacre Coeur! Or challenge yourself during the low tide on one of the many incredible boulder problems at Hartland Quay.

SURFING

Surfing is a must in these parts with swells hitting the coastline all year round with a variety of breaks. So whether you're a pro or a beginner it's a great chance to get out in the water. For beginners, there is an abundance of surf schools in the area, we recommend Blue Surf School down in Bude as all 3 of our children learnt there. They offer private or group lessons as well as wet-suit and board hire - everything you need to get out there! Give them a call on 01288331764, or check out their website (www.bigbluesurfschool.co.uk).

WATERSPORTS

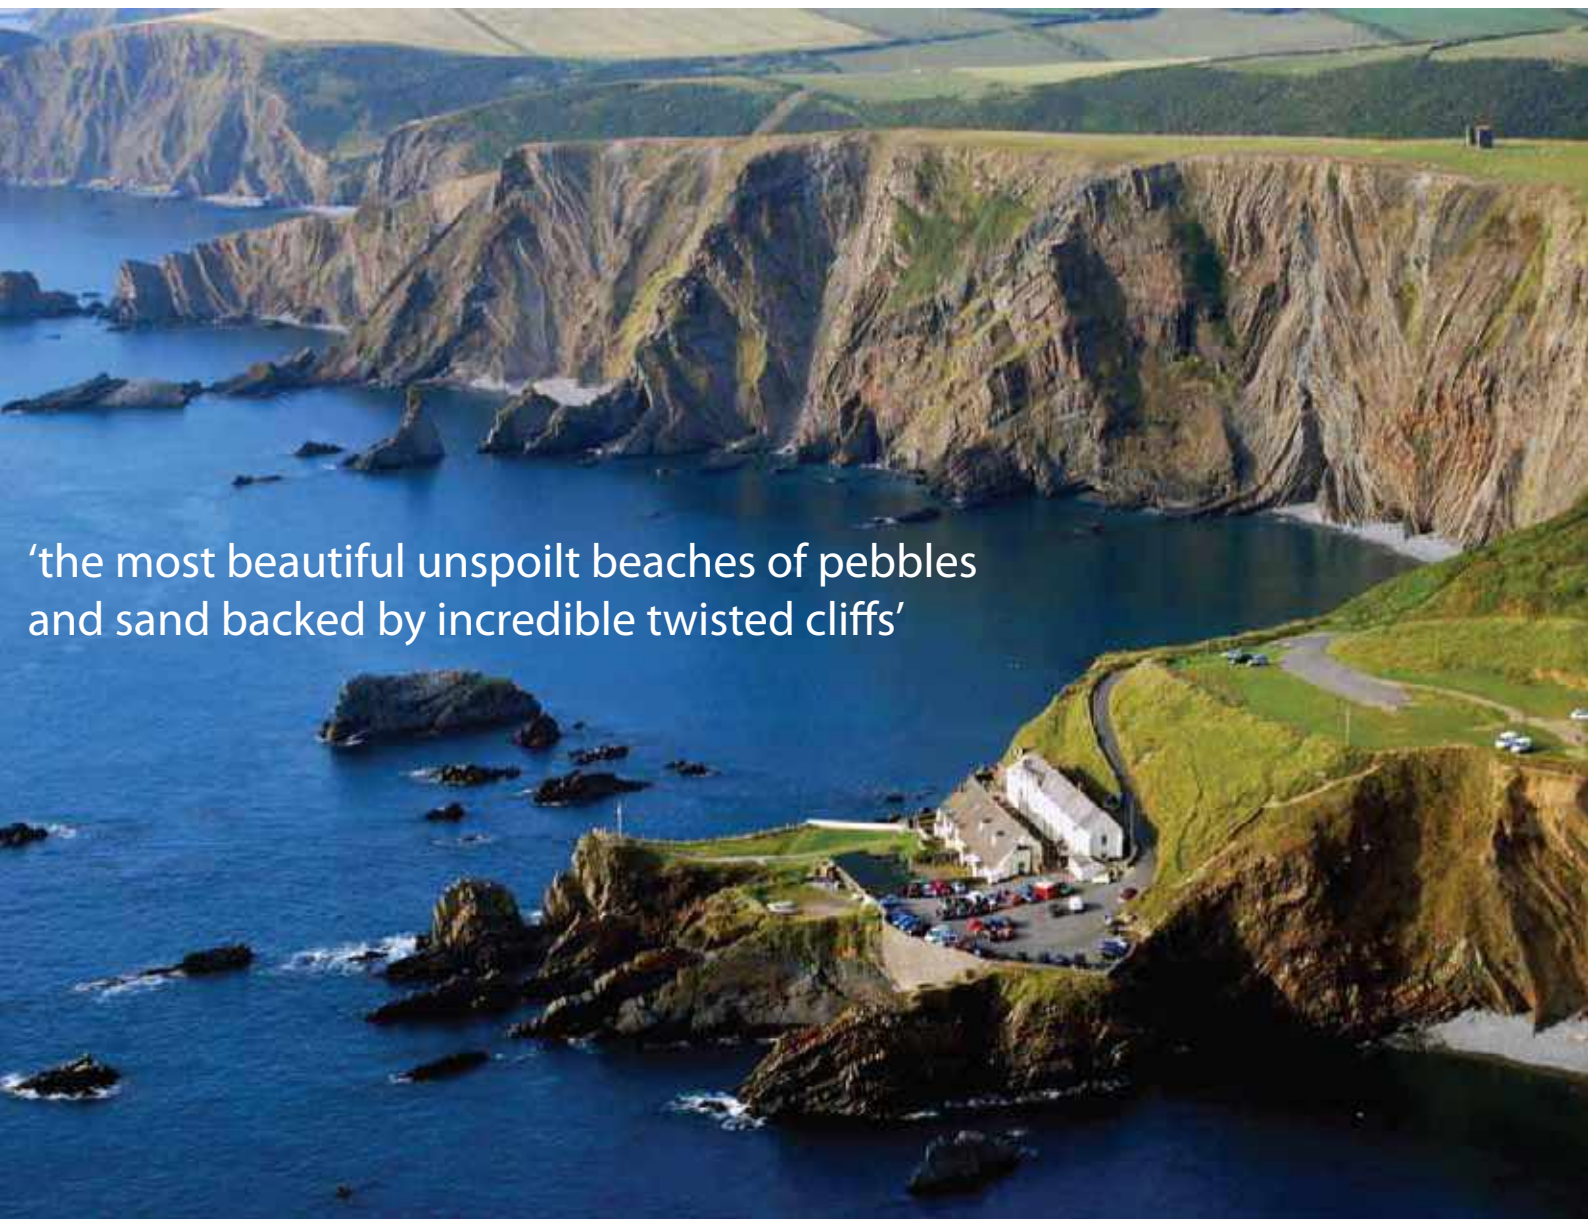

There are so many watersport activities that are possible around the beautiful coastline in the sea, lakes and parks including snorkelling on Lundy Island, wake-boarding (<http://www.northdevonwakepark.co.uk>) or even Rocks and Rapids adventure park to name just a few. If you're keen to explore all the water activities that the area has to offer then please visit the loveland farm camping website for more in depth information on what to do outside. (www.loveland.farm)

SEA KAYAKING

The best way to see the inspirational and fascinating North Atlantic coastline is from the sea itself. When the sea is flat it's beautiful to view from the safety of kayak - or if you fancy more of an exciting paddle go when the sea's a bit choppy! You can hire kayaks from Bude or Westward Ho!

CHECK THE WAVES ON WWW.MAGICSEAWEEED.COM

‘If you are looking to explore the coastline through the endless routes of paths and trails or just take a break in one of the UNESCO heritage's area’

‘the most beautiful unspoilt beaches of pebbles and sand backed by incredible twisted cliffs’

HARTLAND QUAY

10 minute drive from Loveland Farm

Cycle, drive or take a picturesque walk to this hotspot in Hartland! Our favourite place to visit for the beautiful views and amazing swimming, surfing and climbing - tide depending! Enjoy a pint and some pub grub as the sun sets - a must for your stay here in Hartland.

SANDYMOUTH BEACH

30 minute drive from Loveland Farm

Long, sandy stretches of golden beach await! This is a surfers paradise where many of the locals choose to catch a wave - or catch the rays on a sunny day.

Car park facilities and shower/bathrooms are located a 5 minute walk away from the beach.

SPEKES MOUTH & WATERFALL

20 minute drive from Loveland Farm

A 20 minute walk south of Hartland Quay brings you to Spekes Mill Mouth with it's beautiful waterfall and long curving beach. Access to the beach via steps gives you sandy stretches at low tide. Nearby you can find Docton Mill - the prefect place for a much needed rest and a cream tea.

SHIPLoad BAY

A beautiful walk to this hidden gem on the coastal path takes you to an incredibly unspoilt beach. There is a steep downhill climb to get to the beach however, but it's worth it as this makes it almost private! Spend the with views that shouldn't be missed - perfect for picnics, swimming and seal spotting - Hartland!

WELCOMBE BEACH

25 minute drive from Loveland Farm

A short drive will find you at a beautiful Devonshire beach. There is parking right by the beach but the road down is quite bumpy so be careful if you have a smaller car! Once you reach the beach though you won't be disappointed by this quiet and unspoilt spot.

SUMMERLEAZE

30 minute drive from Loveland Farm

A short trip down to Bude will take you to beautiful beaches and a quaint Cornish town. Head to the beach, perfect for learning to surf, or take a dip in the sea pool and enjoy a pasty as you explore the town.

SHORT WALKS TO HILL CLIMBS

Visit the Southwest Coast Path website which features all the coastal walks along the North Devon cliffs, there are plenty of walks around this area all following the disused south west railway line, with some beautiful views along the way, definitely worth a look and don't forget your camera! Our local shop 'The Pop In' in Hartland sells a hand sized walking map of the area, and so too does Hartland Point cafe if you're up that way already!

DOCTON MILL

Open 10am - 5pm

Award winning Docton Mill Gardens and Tea-Rooms is a lovely afternoon out, and not too far from Loveland Farm! The Mill is home to beautiful seasonal flowers which come to life in April and May with daffodils, azaleas, rhododendrons and bluebells, while the summer months showcase the roses and borders that bloom. The tea room also boasts a locally sourced, home-grown in their own vegetable garden menu including fresh homemade soups, pasties, salads and not forgetting the award winning cream teas!

HARTLAND ABBEY

Open 11am - 5pm

A 40 minute walk from Loveland farm brings you to the Hartland Abbey heritage estate. Guests are welcome March to October, and boasts beautiful gardens and grounds that are open to the public.

This stunning 18th century country manor has been featured in various period drama's as well as winning many awards! You can also stop here for refreshments and a cream tea from the coastal path that runs through the estate. The Abbey also hosts various events throughout the year so check their website out to see what's on!

What's in your pod

Here at the farm we have six geodesic domes in total, designed by Buckminster Fuller, each with their own separate cabin housing a private kitchenette, shower and an award winning eco loo. The pods provide a perfect and tranquil place to escape.

*‘THE PODS ENCAPSULATE
THE GRIFFIN ETHOS OF MODERN SUSTAINABILITY
AND LOW IMPACT LIVING’*

The pods themselves have many great features, airy and spacious inside you will feel warm and cosy with your own log burning fire (tips on how to light safely later), whilst the efficiently designed pod will keep you safe from even the strongest storms that the dramatic Atlantic coast has to offer.

Here at Loveland Farm we want to make your stay as carefree as possible so your pod will be completely made up with locally sourced bedding and handmade cushions. Your pod is also equipped with your own wood burner for warmth, shower, eco-toilet and kitchenette which has everything you need to cook and eat.

HOW TO LIGHT A FIRE

1 To prepare your wood burner, open the door/tray to ensure there is enough air supply to start the fire.

2 Open the door of the wood burner and create a 'fire-bed'. Place the supplied fire-lighters (or paper) and dry kindling at the bottom of the wood burner. (Kindling wood is very dry, small pieces of wood and twigs that will catch alright easily). A successful fire will initially require plenty of kindling to establish a hot and warm chimney.

3 Light the fire-lighters / paper and wait for the kindling to catch alight - it should start burning vigorously. Leave the door slightly open to allow enough air flow - by doing this, you will increase the flue pull to assist in lighting the fire and avoid condensation building up on the inside of the glass.

4 Once kindling is burning well (you should hear a crackling noise) you can add larger pieces of split wood to create a stable fire-bed. Do not use full sized logs on this stage, or the fire may peter out and you will need to start again. Build the size of the fire-bed gradually.

5 After 15-20 minutes the heat will be sufficient to create a draught through the flue - the wood burner door can now be closed.

6 Allow the wood to burn down into an even bed of glowing embers- you can then refuel with sizes and logs again as necessary.

Do's & Don'ts

Just to be safe we have put together short list of Do's & Don'ts for your stay.

- Do only use the wood supplied for the wood burner and always close the front glass door using the wooden handle - never use coal in the wood burner as it will cause the burner to break, if you need more wood you can purchase more. Do be careful with small children as the burner can get very hot!

- Do recycle tin and plastic bottles.

- Do be careful on the decking in wet and frosty conditions.

- Do not smoke in your pod.

- Do not leave the gas burner unattended.

- Do not light candles in the pod.

And most importantly Do enjoy yourself!

CHECKING OUT

BY 10AM PLEASE

-We hope you enjoyed your stay at Loveland Farm -

Bedding/ Linen

We're now asking guests to, where possible, remove their bed linen themselves during the check-out process to help protect our housekeeping team.

There is a linen basket provided to dispose of the used linen/tea towels/hand towels/bath mats. This will also help reduce the risk of guests leaving belongings behind when leaving.

Recycling / Waste

During the check-out process, it would be greatly appreciated if guests could remove their waste from the provided bins in the kitchen and safely dispose of the items in the designated recycling area found in the car park.

Thank you for staying at Loveland Farm and helping us keep the farm safe and fun for everyone

JOIN US
